Attach documentation for review if any outstanding performance in academic and/or extracurricular activities.

3. Any of the following circumstances are not allowed to apply:

- (1) Have retained their student status at a domestic university or have registered to attend a domestic university in Taiwan.
- (2) Have studied in Taiwan at the same level as the degree program you are applying for.
- (3) While studying in the Academy of Preparatory Programs for Overseas Compatriot Students of National Taiwan Normal University and domestic public and private senior high schools (including vocational high schools) in Taiwan or after graduation, enroll in domestic university/college after graduation.
- (4) Students are exchange students or dual/joint degree students recruited by Taiwan's universities based on academic cooperation agreements signed with foreign schools.
- (5) This scholarship has been revoked.
- (6) While studying in Taiwan, also receive tuition and miscellaneous fee subsidies, exemptions, or scholarships and bursaries set by our government agencies (institutions); however, this does not include tuition and miscellaneous fee subsidies, exemptions, or scholarships and bursaries provided by the school where the student is a scholarship recipient.

IV. Scholarship duration:

1. The maximum scholarship period is four years.
2. From September 1 of the current school year to August 31 of the following year.
3. If a student is suspended from school for any reason, his/her eligibility will be revoked and the scholarship will be stopped. The scholarships received during the year of suspension shall be paid back in full if the amount is less than one-half according to the period of study before suspension; if the scholarship is more than one-half but less than three-quarters, half shall be paid back; if more than three-quarters has been received, there is no need to return it.
4. Scholarship recipients should arrive at the school on time to register. Those who fail to come to Taiwan to study within the time limit will be deemed to have given up their eligibility to receive the scholarship and it will not be retained.
5. When a scholarship student is approved to transfer by the current school and the school to which he/she intends to transfer, the original school should state the category of the scholarship received, the start and end year of the award, and the month and year of transfer, and notify the recipient and the school to which he is transferring in a letter. The school to which the student transfers should state the month and year it agrees to transfer the scholarship recipient in an official letter to the scholarship recipient and the school he/she is transferring from. Official Letters from the school the student transfers from and to school should be copied to the OCAC relevant overseas missions or designated units by the OCAC.

- V. Applicants should submit the following documents from now until March 31st, 2024:

- VI. Applicants should apply to Culture Center of T.E.C.O. in Los Angeles (Santa Ana) directly. Duplicate applications will not be accepted. All required documents should be submitted at the same time. The submitted application documents will not be returned.
- VII. The selection principles for scholarship recipients are as follows:
1. In addition to the written preliminary review, the best candidates will be selected for interviews or video interviews to select recipients and those on the reserve list.
 2. Priority will be given to scholarship applicants who have passed the Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language (TOCFL) and obtained an intermediate or above test certificate.
- VIII. After the award recipients are selected, the approved recipients will be notified via an official from Culture Center of T.E.C.O. in Los Angeles (Santa Ana).
- IX. Those who fail to obtain admission will lose scholarship eligibility. Award recipients should submit a copy of their Taiwan university admission permit to Culture Center of T.E.C.O. in Los Angeles (Santa Ana) before June 30th, 2024. Those who fail to submit a copy of the admission permit will forfeit their eligibility for the scholarship. Culture Center of T.E.C.O. in Los Angeles (Santa Ana) will select a candidate from the waiting list to replace the original recipient. The newly selected recipient will be notified via mail by Culture Center of T.E.C.O. in Los Angeles (Santa Ana).
- X. The procedures for initial scholarship receipt, continuing receipt, and application review are as follows:
1. Initial receipt: Students who have received the award at the beginning of the first academic year should submit the official letter from the OCAC approving the award and other documents proving the award to the school after registration in the first academic year.

2. Eligibility for continuing receipt:

- (1) Recipients who meet the above criteria should study for more than nine credits per semester during their studies. Top scholarship recipients should have an overall average academic grade of A or above 85 points, and an overall average academic grade of 80 points (or equivalent) or above; Outstanding Scholarship recipients should have an overall academic average of A- or 80 points or above, and an overall conduct average of 80 points (or same grade) or above; if they become exchange students during their studies, their foreign credits and study grades must be recognized by the domestic school first.
 - (2) Those whose grades in the previous school year did not meet the current benchmark will not be allowed to apply. However, if grades in subsequent academic years reach the current benchmark, they may apply again.
 - (3) After the second academic year, award recipients should submit transcripts that meet the provisions of the preceding paragraph and apply to the school for renewal; the school should review the award recipient's eligibility to renew the award, submit the renewal review results to the OCAC for review, and then notify the award recipient. The school to recipient attends will handle scholarship applications in accordance with regulations.
- XI. If the scholarship recipient's application documents are found to be forged or false, or if he or she drops out, the OCAC will revoke his or her eligibility and pursue related legal liability depending on the seriousness of the situation.
